1 WEDNESDAY

7:00 Coming Home: Military Families Cope with Change

This special, hosted by Elmo and Rosita (Sesame Street), explores the challenges faced by injured soldiers and their families. It salutes their extraordinary courage and strength and offers strategies for coping.

7:30 PBS Previews We Shall Remain: American Experience

This program is a behind-the-scenes preview of the five-part Native American history series, We Shall Remain. The series shows how Native peoples valiantly resisted expulsion from their lands and fought the extinction of their culture—from the Wampanoags of New England in the 1600s who used their alliance with the English to weaken rival tribes, to the bold new leaders of the 1970s who harnessed the momentum of the civil rights movement to forge a pan-Indian identity. We Shall Remain represents an unprecedented collaboration between Native and non-Native filmmakers and involves Native advisors and scholars at all levels of the project.

8:00 Jerusalem: Center of the World

This program explores the history of Jerusalem and its historic sites. Ray Suarez hosts the program.

6 MONDAY

7:00 Antiques Roadshow

Chattanooga, Tennessee

8:00 Annie Oakley: American Experience

This program tells the tale of the star of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, the young woman who thrilled audiences around the world with her daring shooting feats. While her act helped fuel turn-of-the-century nostalgia for the vanished, mythical world of the American West, the legend of Annie Oakley had little to do with the real Annie. Although famous as a western sharpshooter, Oakley lived her entire life east of the Mississippi. A champion in a man's sport, Oakley forever changed ideas about the abilities of women, yet she opposed female suffrage. Her fame and fortune came from her skill with guns, a concept that was counter to her Quaker upbringing.

9:00 House of Life: The Old Jewish Cemetery in Prague

Prague's Old Jewish Cemetery, a place of haunting beauty and mystery, has endured wars and pogroms, floods and fires, assimilation and an urban clearing project that destroyed most of the ancient Jewish Quarter it once served. Miraculously, it even survived the Nazi occupation and 40 years of communist neglect.

10:30 Capitol Journal

11:00 BBC World News

7 TUESDAY

7:00 NOVA

Doctors' Diaries

This is the last installment in the groundbreaking NOVA series that began back in 1987 and followed seven students starting out at Harvard Medical School. Over the last two decades, NOVA has documented these individuals' trials and tribulations as they struggled to become doctors.

8:00 The Illuminated Bible

Amid the rolling hills of England's Monmouthshire, a team of artists are undertaking a seven-year task to handwrite and illuminate a new Bible.

9:00 Frontline

Black Money

Frontline examines the shadowy world of international bribery. The story reveals how multi-national companies create slush funds, set up front companies, and make secret payments, all to get billions in business. But these practices are facing a new international crackdown, led by prosecutors at the U.S. Department of Justice and allies abroad.

8 WEDNESDAY

7:00 Jean-Michel Cousteau: Ocean Adventures
Sea Ghosts

In the cold reaches of the far northern seas, it's a wonder that anything survives beyond the hardest of microbes, insects, and shrimp.

But some of the ocean's coldest waters are also home to some of its largest and most warm-blooded, in this case, beluga whales, the mammal known as the canary of the sea for its vocal repertoire.

8:00 Jean-Michel Cousteau: Ocean Adventures

Call of the Killer Whales (Parts 1 & 2)

The dominant marine species on the planet, our counterparts in the sea are the orca, the ruler of the ocean. They are the most widely distributed marine mammal in the world. Their realm extends from the Arctic to the Antarctic. Orcas, also called killer whales, number fewer than 100,000 worldwide, and learning more about them is a global endeavor for Jean-Michel Cousteau and his team of oceanauts, who travel to both the northern and southern hemispheres as they seek out killer whales in the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.
