VIEWER GUIDE SYMBOLS

Local productions are identified by the symbol (L).

Listings are as accurate as possible at press time, but programming is subject to change. Find the most up-to-date schedule information online at www.aptv.org.

1 SUNDAY

6:00 Antiques Roadshow

Dallas, TX

7:00 Nature

Prince of the Alps

High in the Austrian Alps, a female red deer, a leader in her herd, gives birth to a calf. Her status makes him a prince among the other calves. But hunters, skiers, hikers and pet dogs, as well as a harsh and icy winter, threaten their survival.

8:00 Justice Without Violence: The Montgomery Bus Boycott (L)

This documentary tells the story of the Montgomery Bus Boycott of 1955-56. Locally engineered by the African American community, this nonviolent protest to end bus segregation inspired a new era in freedom and human rights struggles around the globe.

8:30 Fannie Lou Hamer: Courage and Faith

Using archival footage and interviews with those who knew her well and were affected by her actions, this program chronicles the extraordinary life of Fannie Lou Hamer and introduces her to a new generation. Hamer attended the 1964 Democratic National Convention as a member of the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Party and challenged the all-white Mississippi delegation. Many credit her presence at the convention as the impetus for the passage of the 1965 Voting Rights Act.

9:00 Masterpiece Classic

Sense and Sensibility (Part 1 of 2)

Hattie Morahan plays level-headed Elinor Dashwood, and Charity Wakefield is her impulsive sister Marianne. Though poor, they attract a trio of very promising gentlemen.

10:30 Get Ready for Digital TV

11:00 We Have Signal! (L)

The Fiery Furnaces

2 MONDAY

7:00 Antiques Roadshow

Dallas, TX

8:00 American Experience

The Polio Crusade

The story of the largest public health experiment in American history—the effort to eradicate polio, one of the 20th century's most dreaded diseases.

9:00 Forgotten Ellis Island

Forgotten Ellis Island is the first film produced about the once abandoned immigrant hospital on Ellis Island. During the great wave of immigration, twenty-two medical buildings sprawled across two islands adjacent to Ellis Island, the largest port of entry in the United States. Massive and modern, the hospital was America's first line of defense against contagious, often virulent disease. In the era before antibiotics, tens of thousands of immigrant patients were separated from family, detained in the hospital, and healed from illness before becoming citizens. Ten times that many immigrants died on Ellis Island, many buried in pauper's graves around New York City.

10 TUESDAY

7:00 NOVA

Judgment Day: Intelligent Design on Trial

In 2004, the school board of Dover,

Pennsylvania ordered science teachers to read to their high school biology students a statement that suggested there is an alternative to Darwin's theory of evolution. Called "Intelligent Design," the idea is that that life is too complex to have evolved naturally and therefore had to have been designed by an intelligent agent.

The science teachers refused to comply with the order; alarmed parents filed a lawsuit in federal court. Suddenly, Dover was torn apart by controversy, pitting neighbor against neighbor.

9:00 Faubourg Tremé: The Untold Story of Black New Orleans

Arguably the oldest black neighborhood in America and the birthplace of jazz, Faubourg Tremé was home to the largest community of free black people in the Deep South during slavery and a hotbed of political ferment. Here, black and white, free and enslaved, rich and poor cohabitated, collaborated and clashed to create America's first civil rights movement and a unique American culture.

10:30 American Stamps

16 MONDAY

7:00 Antiques Roadshow

Wichita, KS

8:00 American Experience

The Lobotomist

The lobotomy was hailed by The New York Times as a "surgery of the soul," a groundbreaking medical procedure that promised hope to distressed families and desolate mentally ill patients. Championed by a young and ambitious neurologist named Walter J. Freeman, what began as an operation of last resort was soon being performed at some 50 state asylums, often with devastating results. Only a decade after his rise to fame, Freeman was decried as a moral monster and the lobotomy as one of the most barbaric mistakes of modern medicine. Through interviews with medical historians, psychiatrists who worked with Freeman and the desperate families who sought his help, this program tells the gripping tale of medical intervention gone awry.

9:00 Simon Schama's Rough Crossings

Based on Simon Schama's book, this program chronicles the abolition of slavery from the plantations of Georgia through the Revolutionary War to Nova Scotia, Canada.

8:00 Sisters of Selma: Bearing Witness for Change

The Catholic Church owes much of its record of social activism to vowed women, for whom service is the highest calling. In fact, most orders of nuns were founded for social service. It is not surprising that in 1965 and thereafter, the sisters came to the city of Selma, Alabama, to help the oppressed—the African-American citizens of the South fighting for their civil rights.

9:00 Frontline

Inside the Meltdown

Frontline investigates the causes of the worst economic crisis in 70 years and how the government responded.

10:00 Rick Steves' Europe

10:30 Capitol Journal (L)

11:00 P.O.V.

18 WEDNESDAY

7:00 American Masters

Marvin Gaye: What's Going On

His standing among the most enduring 20th-century American musical artists is without question, yet his story is rarely told beyond the tragic circumstances of his death. Enormously talented and equally complicated, Gaye created an intimate style – full of honesty, integrity, vulnerability—and, essentially, gave the world his autobiography in lyrics and melody.

8:00 American Masters

Jerome Robbins: Something to Dance About

No other creative figure of the latter twentieth century was as contradictory as Jerome Robbins, and few were as controversial. He was a master of the Broadway musical, transforming its possibilities with such works as West Side Story, Gypsy and Peter Pan, and was one of the greatest ballet choreographers this country has ever produced.
