2 SUNDAY

6:00 Antiques Roadshow

Jackpot!

It's every collector's dream: turning a modest outlay into a staggeringly high return on investment. Antiques Roadshow "Jackpot" rolls the dice on those heady moments when luck smiles on flea market mavens and yard sale savants.

7:00 Nature

The Cheetah Orphans

Veteran filmmaker Simon King takes on the role of mother to two cheetah cubs, Toki and Sambu, orphaned when their mother was killed by a lion. It's a two-year emotional rollercoaster, from terrifying stand-offs with rhinos and leopards to some of the most intimate moments of cheetah life ever captured on film. The cubs evolve into sleek hunters, spending more and more time on their own. But for Simon, it's a nervous time. Can they survive the dangers of the bush?

8:00 NOVA

Family That Walks on All Fours

When the BBC released the story of five siblings from an impoverished family in Turkey who habitually walk on all fours, it created a worldwide media sensation. But what is the evolutionary significance of such a discovery? Is the family a genetic throwback to our earliest ancestors who had not yet evolved to become bipedal? Or are the Turkish siblings merely the product of tragic mental retardation, further impeded by social circumstances?

9:00 Frontline

8:00 American Experience

Oswald's Ghost

The assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas on November 22, 1963, left a psychic wound on America that remains today. Few Americans then or now accept that a lone, inconsequential gunman could bring down a president and alter history. That event gave rise to a culture of conspiracy that points to sinister forces at work in the shadows.

9:30 The Journey to Palomar

The Journey To Palomar is the story of American astronomer George Ellery Hale's dramatic public and private struggle to build the four largest telescopes in the world, which set the stage for astronomy and space exploration throughout the 20th century, revealing the greatest discoveries since Galileo and Copernicus.

8:00 The Rape of Europa

The Rape Of Europa relates how Europe's art treasures survived the systematic theft and deliberate destruction perpetrated by Germany's Third Reich during World War II. For 12 years, the Nazis looted and destroyed art on a scale unprecedented in history, but heroic young art historians and curators from America and Europe fought to rescue and return millions of lost, hidden and stolen treasures. The legacy of this tragic time in history continues to play out today as families recover looted works of art and nations fight over the ill-gotten spoils of war.

10:00 Secrets of the Dead

Escape from Auschwitz

The truth about the Auschwitz death camp was one of the most closely guarded secrets of the Third Reich. Prisoners who tried to escape were executed in public as an example to other inmates, and very few ever made it out alive. "Escape From Auschwitz" tells the story of two young Slovak Jews, Rudolph Vrba and Alfred Wetzler, who managed to escape by hiding in a woodpile for three days, then fleeing across enemy territory, determined to tell the world about the atrocities being committed by the Nazis at the camp.
