

OWN A PIECE OF ALABAMA ART! AND SUPPORT APT AT THE SAME TIME!

Our newest documentary, Alabama Craft: Tradition & Innovation, features some of Alabama's most renowned artists, from potter Jerry Brown to fiddle-maker Gene Ivey and glass artist Cal Breed. Now, you have the chance to own some of their actual art and to support APT at the same time. The APT Alabama Art Auction, launching July 17th, will feature work from every artist in the documentary including pottery by Charles Smith, quilts by Bettye Kimbrell and Mozell Benson and an original iron sculpture by blacksmith John Phillips. Many of these works are one-of-a-kind pieces commissioned specifically for this auction.

Auction details can be found at aptv.org or by following APT's fan pages on Facebook and Twitter starting July 16. Bid early, bid often, and support Alabama Public Television.
