THE HISTORY DETECTIVES ARE ON THE CASE!

America's top gumshoes are back to prove once again that an object found in an attic or backyard might be anything but ordinary. Wesley Cowan, independent appraiser and auctioneer; Gwendolyn Wright, historian and professor of architecture, Columbia University; Elyse Luray, independent appraiser and expert in art history; and Tukufu Zuberi, professor of sociology and the director of the Center for Africana Studies at the University of Pennsylvania leave no stone unturned as they travel around the country to explore the stories behind local folklore, prominent figures and family legends. Dr. Eduardo Pagán, professor of history and American studies at Arizona State University, has signed on as guest co-host this year. Among the questions the detectives will investigate this summer are:

- Did John Wilkes Booth's father once threaten to kill President Andrew Jackson?
- Did Thomas Edison build a device for communicating with the dead?
- Was a gun used by Al Capone's gang during the St. Valentine's Day Massacre handed down through two generations of prominent Chicago families

DAVID SUCHET RETURNS TO MASTERPIECE MYSTERY!

SIX BY AGATHA

David Suchet returns to his signature role as suave Belgian supersleuth Hercule Poirot in two new mysteries based on novels by Agatha Christie. On holiday abroad, taking a countryside break, or simply going about his business near his central London home, Poirot finds himself exercising his "little grey cells" by helping police investigate crimes and murders — whether they ask for his help or not.

Suchet delighted Mystery! fans for several seasons in the late 1980s and early '90s with his portrayal of Hercule Poirot. The London-born actor, who spent several years with the Royal Shakespeare Company specializing in villainous roles such as Iago in Othello and Caliban in The Tempest, has also had a distinguished career on stage and in film. He received a Tony nomination for this portrayal of composer Salieri in the 1998-2001 Broadway production of Amadeus.

Following the two Poirot adventures in June, acclaimed British actress Julia McKenzie takes over the iconic role of Miss Marple, Agatha Christie's other popular detective, in four new episodes.
