WWII BEHIND CLOSED DOORS: STALIN, THE NAZIS AND THE WEST

Photo: PBS

In confidential meetings held throughout the duration of World War II, Joseph Stalin, Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Winston Churchill sparred and negotiated for the political and economic interests of their nations — making deals that sometimes had less to do with right or wrong than the expediency of their individual wartime goals. Rare wartime documents made briefly available only after the fall of the Soviet Union help reveal the real story.

Historian and filmmaker Laurence Rees tells the unknown story of Stalin's backroom dealings — first with the Nazis and then with Roosevelt and Churchill. Juxtaposing conventional documentary elements with dramatic re-creations, the series breaks through the myths of the Allied powers, illuminating the hidden motivations of "The Big Three" and creating a dynamic reappraisal of one of the seminal events in world history.
